NOTICE

Your illegal sign was confiscated as a part of our neighborhood beautification program. Signs placed in the public right -of-way or on utility poles are illegal under the provisions of Section 4608c of the Houston Sign Code and Sections 40-15 and 28-39 of the Code of Ordinances. These regulations prohibit placement of signs on public property and authorize their immediate disposal.

Continued placement of illegal signs in the right-of-way will be referred to the City of Houston, Sign Administration Division for additional enforcement action. Citations, with a maximum fine of $500 per day per sign can be issued.

We hope that this information will enlighten you and that you will choose to join us in improving the visual appearance of our neighborhood.

If you would like additional information concerning the regulation of advertising signs, please call:
